1. This application has been transferred due to the retirement of Examiner David Aylward. The amendment after Final rejection filed February 28, 2005 has been entered. The Final rejection mailed January 29, 2004 is withdrawn and prosecution is hereby reopened with the following election of species requirement.

2. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

a) The coloring agents of claim 4 such as the carbon black defined in claims 15-18.

b) The thermosetting resins wherein if an epoxy resin is elected, a particular species thereof is identified from claim 3.

c) The inorganic fillers of claim 8.

d) The inorganic fillers with the surface treatment by a coupling agent of claims 9 and 18, or without the surface treatment. If the inorganic fillers with the surface treatment is elected, a particular type of coupling agent is selected from a silane, titanate or aluminate as described on page 15, lines 4-5.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species within each of items a) to d) hereinabove for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

Currently, claims 1, 3, 4, 6-11 and 15-18 are generic.

A reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

A telephone call was made to Bob Goodell on March 17, 2005 to request an oral election to the above election of species requirement, but did not result in elections being made. The reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the species to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
